

MISS WILSON GUEST OF MRS. JAMES AT PRETTY LUNCHEON

Pink Flowers Predominate in Decorative Scheme at Apartment in Parkwood.

TEN INCLUDED IN PARTY

Senator and Mrs. Saulsbury Have Vice President Among Guests at Dinner.

Miss Margaret Wilson was the guest of honor at a pretty luncheon today at her apartment in the Parkwood.

The ladies invited to meet Miss Wilson were Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, Mrs. J. M. Culp, Miss Edith Koon, Miss Ames Hart Wilson, Mrs. James R. Mann, Madame Slavko Groultch and Miss Nancy O'Donoghue, of Philadelphia, who is visiting Mrs. James.

Pink sweet peas and pink roses were arranged with ferns to form a graceful centerpiece, while pink-capped tapers lent a festive air to the table, and drawing-rooms were gay with palms and pink roses.

The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall were guests at dinner last evening of Senator and Mrs. Saulsbury, who had to meet them the Japanese Ambassador and Viscountess Chinda, the Minister of Switzerland and Mme. Ritter, the Minister of Sweden and Mme. Eknersten, Mrs. Charles Warren, Dr. and Mrs. David Jayne Hill and Admiral and Mrs. Richardson Clover.

Wedding Tonight

A charming home wedding will take place this evening at the residence of Congressman and Mrs. Nelson, of Wisconsin, 220 Cathedral avenue, when their daughter, Miss Anne Nelson, will become the bride of Charles Newton Lamb, formerly of Lincoln, Neb. Mr. Lamb is now an examiner with the United States Forest Service and a resident of Washington.

The house will be charmingly decorated with spring flowers, arranged against a background of green. In the dining room the color scheme of yellow will be carried out with quantities of jonquills and white lilies and roses will be used in the drawing room, where the ceremony will be performed. The Rev. Henry Anstadt, of the Lutheran Memorial Church, will officiate.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a dainty gown of white tulle veiled in tulle, the bodice fashioned of point lace, and her veil will also be of tulle. She will carry white roses of the valley. Miss Ruth Nelson, who will hold her sister's flowers during the services, will wear a charming costume of pink chiffon over pink silk. She will carry pink roses. Mrs. Nelson's gown is of black chiffon and charmeuse, combined in a graceful fashion.

Only relatives and a few close friends will witness the marriage, which will be followed by an informal reception and afterward Mr. Lamb and his bride will leave town for an extended wedding trip. She will wear a modish traveling suit of tulle, with a wide-brimmed hat in a harmonizing shade. After an absence of several months the young couple will make their home in Washington.

Mrs. David Jayne Hill will be at home April 3, from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Large Musicales.

The Rev. Douglas Putnam Birnie and Mrs. Birnie will entertain eighty guests at a musicale this evening.

The artists will be Mrs. William Bird, of Paris, who has a delightful and highly cultivated soprano voice, and Fanny Kindler, cellist, with the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra. Mr. and Mrs. Birnie will be assisted in welcoming their guests by their daughter, Miss Martha Noyes Birnie.

The meeting of the Sunshine and Community Society will be held at Woodward & Lothrop's auditorium Friday at 2 o'clock. There will be special music and several addresses. The public is invited.

Bridge at the Shoreham.

Mrs. E. Benedict Cobb was hostess at a bridge party in the private dining room of the Shoreham yesterday afternoon, which was followed later by a tea in the ball room.

Lewis Nixon, of New York, was also among those entertaining at the Shoreham yesterday. He had ten guests for dinner.

Lady Harrington, wife of Sir John Harrington, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. James McMillan, will remain in Washington for a fortnight longer, after which she will return to her home in England.

Sir John Harrington, who was formerly in the diplomatic service, is now with the British army in France. Before her marriage, the daughter of Mrs. James McMillan. Her visit to Washington is being made the occasion of a pleasant round of informal parties with her old friends here.

Visiting Mrs. Field.

Mrs. Marshall Field has two interesting young guests with her this month, the children of former Senator and Mrs. Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana. Mrs. Beveridge is a niece of Mrs. Field.

The children, Master Albert Beveridge, Jr., and Miss Abby Beveridge, are thoroughly enjoying their visit to their great-aunt, with whom they are particularly popular.

Paymaster B. H. Brooke, U. S. N., and Mrs. Brooke have come up from Indian Head for a few days, and are stopping at the Shoreham.

Kaleom Donald, of Boston, and children have joined Mrs. Donald at the Shoreham Hotel. With them is Miss Virginia Kilian, also of Boston.

TO BE HOSTESS AT CARDS

MRS. JOHN KERFOOT HAYWOOD,

Who will preside at Cameron House, Saturday, at party given by Tenth precinct, Congressional Union.

WALLACES HOSTS TO THIRD MUSICAL SET FOR TONIGHT

Assistant Attorney General Gives Dinner in His Honor at the Shoreham Hotel.

President and Mrs. Wilson Will Be Hosts at Lenten Event at the White House.

Assistant Attorney General and Mrs. Wallace entertained at dinner last evening in compliment to Chief Justice and Mrs. White.

The dinner was served in the ball room of the Shoreham Hotel, the table being a quarter of the room. The table was decorated with white flowers, which were placed in a central fountain, a slim bronze water nymph on an illuminated pedestal.

Invited to meet the Chief Justice and Mrs. White were Justice and Mrs. McKenna, Justice and Mrs. Gregory, Secretary General and Mrs. Daniels, Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels, Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. A. C. Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Hamlin, Brig. Gen. James A. Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Thompson, and Miss Annette Gates, of New York; Mr. Constantine, of the Greek legation; former Governor Magoon, Col. Charles Page Bryan, and Mr. Todd.

Guest of Mrs. Cranford.

Mrs. T. Q. Donelson, wife of Major Donelson, arrived in Washington today from Governor's Island to be the guest of Mrs. Joseph Homiston Cranford for several days.

Hostess at Luncheon.

Mrs. Nicholas Anderson entertained a number of guests informally at luncheon today.

St. Joseph's day was observed yesterday at the Home of the Little Sisters of the Poor, when many friends and patrons of the home assembled to assist at the mid-day feast for the aged people who are its inmates. The dinner, which is a feature of the celebration, was served in the several refectories, finishing with sweets, among which were old-fashioned sticks of candy, bringing back memories of youth to many of the diners. The gift of tobacco, which makes the day memorable among the men, was not forgotten, and after dinner there were songs in the men's dining rooms and some sprightly old-time dance steps by some of the more youthful of the occupants. In the colored women's dining room, Mme. Jusseland, who has assisted in waiting on the tables every year since she came to Washington, was among the visitors at the home yesterday. Others who dined aprons and assisted in serving the dinner yesterday included Madame de Riano, Madame Zaldivar, Madame de Urcullu, Miss Patten, Mrs. James P. Barbour, Miss Marguerite Barbour, Miss Alice Hays, Mrs. Robert Hinchley, Miss Sheridan, Miss Enriqueta Morales, Mrs. Frank Hogan, Mrs. John W. Davis, and the small sons of the late Costa Rican Minister and Mme. Calvo, and Henry Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Howard, and his young cousin, Blaise de Sibour, son of Viscount and Viscountess de Sibour.

Miss E. A. Gilliss is spending a few weeks at Palm Beach, and will visit other points of interest in the South.

COUNSELOR POLK IS HOST TO STOKOWSKI

Later Party Will Be Guests at Musicales at the White House.

The Counselor of the State Department and Mrs. Polk will entertain informally at dinner this evening in compliment to Leopold Stokowski and Mrs. Stokowski, who will be their guests over night. Later Mr. and Mrs. Polk and their guests will attend a musicale at the White House. Mr. Stokowski is leader of the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra, which will be heard in concert here this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Polk will also be hosts at dinner Friday evening, when the guests of honor will be Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Polk, of New York.

Miss Rosetta Samuel, of Danville, Ill., is expected to arrive in Washington shortly to be the guest of Miss Virginia LeSeure, granddaughter of Congressman Cannon.

Mr. and Mrs. LeSeure will come to Washington within the next fortnight to be with Mr. Cannon and Miss Cannon until the end of April. Mrs. LeSeure, who was recently here for a short time, went back to Danville to superintend some improvements on her home there.

Former United States Ambassador to Japan and Mrs. J. J. Grier, of Grand Rapids, Mich., who have established themselves in Washington for the spring season, have leased the late possession of the home of the late Lieut. Gen. Henry C. Corbin at Twenty-second and R streets, a house especially built for entertaining.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien have as their guest just now Miss Katharine Hughtart, of Grand Rapids. Miss Hughtart will remain through the Easter season.

WOE IN DENVER OVER DOMESTICS' DEMANDS

Ask $12 Weekly "Salary" and Theater.

DENVER, March 21.—Twelve dollars weekly salary—not pay—Sundays "off," shorter hours, polite treatment and "followers" allowed are the terms demanded by the members of the Denver Housemaids' Union, formed at a secret meeting in the Charles building.

In pressing these terms on the mistresses of the Capitol Hill mansions, the housemaids will not order a general strike, but will adopt a system of sabotage which, it is expected, will wreck the ladies' nerves.

For each maid will serve meals late, smile at the master, and leave her "situation" before a week ends. Between situations she will live in a house the union has rented.

A list of practically every "lady of the house" here is being made, on which her characteristics will be described without mincing words.

"We will gain what we ask of every mistress in Denver will cook her meals and scrub her kitchen floor," boasted the leader of the union. She has red hair.

SOCIETY TO FORGET CARE AT CARNIVAL

Skating and Dancing Fete at Arcade Tonight for Benefit of Neighborhood House.

Advised by the invitations extended to "leave care and trouble behind them," members of Washington society who are planning to attend the skating and dance carnival for the benefit of Neighborhood House at the Arcade Auditorium tonight, are primed for the gayest mid-Lenten party given this season.

Novelty dances on skates will be one of the features. Everybody who goes on the floor must be costumed. They need not be in full costume, but so long as their headgear is unique or grotesque, their apparel will warrant their admission to the dancing and skating space. The galleries will be reserved for the audience.

To Repeat Dances.

The affair will recall the recent Beaux Arts ball and the "Tippy Prince" play given at Rauscher's several weeks ago for the benefit of the Junior Republic. Many figures seen in the production of the Beaux Arts pageant, and the play will be repeated at the carnival and many of the costumes worn at the two previous affairs will be seen again tonight.

Baroness Lily von Winkler and Miss Ruth Anderson will repeat the dance they executed in the "Tippy Prince." A corps of society girls have been enlisted as "salsadistes" for the occasion and will peddle cigarettes, candy, and flowers for the benefit of the charity.

In Charge of Skating.

Miss Beatrice Clover is in charge of the program of exhibition skating and dancing and other novel features, and William Bowie Clark is chairman of the floor committee.

The committee on arrangements consists of Mrs. John Jay White, Miss Sophie Siebert, Mrs. Ward Brown, and Mrs. George T. Odell. Among the patronesses are Mrs. Paul Bartlett, Mrs. Richardson Clover, Mrs. Charles J. Bell, Mrs. Frederic Delano, Mrs. McKenstry, Mrs. Gibson Fahnstich, Mrs. Henry Jennings, Mrs. Christian Hemmick, Mrs. David Jayne Hill, Mrs. Robert Hinchley, Mrs. Chauncey Hackett, Mrs. Theodore W. Noyes, Mrs. George Rublee, Mrs. Walter Tuckerman, Mrs. Charles B. Wood, Mrs. Arthur Wood, and Mrs. Harold Walker.

Enters Infirmary at 110.

CHICAGO, March 21.—That John Whitehead, colored, has weathered his one hundred and tenth year is an accomplishment of which he is rather boastful. Despite his advanced years he considers himself—barring an occasional attack of rheumatism—fit for any kind of work. But the Cook county authorities are considerate of Uncle John's years, and for this reason they have arranged for him a future life of ease. He has settled down at the county infirmary in Oak Forest.

TELLEGEN WINS KISS FROM BRIDE ON STAGE

Play Stops and Applause Drowns Everything Else When Farrar Appears.

NEW YORK, March 21.—It was Geroldina Farrar, opera star, movie actress, and bride, who provided the real entertainment at the Maxine Elliott Theater last night, the occasion of her husband's return to the stage in "A King of Nowhere."

After the second act Mr. Tellegen came before the footlights, and, after thanking the audience for its evident appreciation of the piece, said: "I hope you will pardon me for my seeming nervousness in acting this evening, but I have a good reason for it. It is the first time I have appeared on the stage in the presence of my wife, pointing to a lower stage box where Miss Farrar sat with her father and mother."

All eyes were immediately directed on the opera singer, and cries of "Speech! Speech!" rang through the house. But Miss Farrar was prepared for the occasion, and instead of acknowledging the applause stole out of the box and slipped behind the scenes. In a moment she reappeared on the stage, then, slipping from his arms, she lightly returned to her box while the spectators roared with laughter and applause.

It was with difficulty that the play was resumed, for many half expected Mr. and Mrs. Farrar to appear behind the footlights next.

Not content with this Miss Farrar embraced her husband and kissed him several times, murmuring a gracious thanks to the audience and then, slipping from his arms, she lightly returned to her box while the spectators roared with laughter and applause.

It was with difficulty that the play was resumed, for many half expected Mr. and Mrs. Farrar to appear behind the footlights next.

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

Look at tongue! If feverish, bilious, constipated, take no chances.

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore doesn't eat, sleep, or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile, and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy. Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow. But get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other syrup—Adv.
